Summary: The leader to a new series I'm writing! Guess whose POV it is!

My Shining Star

My Shining Star By Paige Jones

(AN: Okay, this is the leader to my new series. It actually takes place after the start, but this came to me and I loved it! Ciao and read on!

Disclaimer: I do not own Digimon. I stay up day and night plotting a way to make it mine, but no plan has succeeded yet. Too bad for me!)

I looked out that night, at the darkening sky. I looked at the moon, bright and shining tonight. I looked at the stars... the stars.

Sigh, the stars. Bright, brilliant stars. Incredibly lovely stars. Stars that shine with the light of life within them. Oh, the stars.

My star was bright as well. If you ask me, it was the most brilliant star. And lovely, well, my star had that one down, if you asked me. And, oh, how it shone with the light of life! Aye, that was my star. Aye, she was my star.

My wonderful brown haired star with lovely gray eyes! She looked into my sea blue eyes and grinned, her smile full of that life I loved so much about her. If I had known what I know now, I would have made that moment so special. I would have told her. However, I did not know, and it saddens me now. I can always cherish these moments though.

That was one the last moments I had with my star. And now, she is gone, I have but one question to ask her.

Do you love me, my shining star?

End
file.
